

Camp Fire Summer Enrichment Day

HIGHLIGHTED CAMP RULES:

CAMPER(S)

1. Can not be abusive towards him/herself or others: does not physically, verbally, or sexually abuse self or others, which abuse includes but is not limited hitting, biting, scratching, spitting, kicking, excessive swearing, excessive or inappropriate yelling or verbal degradation, inappropriate touching or other inappropriate behavior; Campers and Parents must be respectful to all staff and participants in the program at all times. THE CAMP HAS A ZERO TOLERANCE POLICY FOR ANY VERBAL AND/OR PHYSICAL AGGRESSION/ALTERCATION. ANY INCIDENTS WITH HITTING, KICKING, EXCESSIVE SWEARING, EXCESSIVE DISRESPECT, ETC. WILL RESULT IN IMMEDIATE TERMINATION FROM THE PROGRAM.

2. Can not pose a direct threat to himself/herself or others that cannot be eliminated or reduced below the level of a direct threat with or without reasonable accommodation. Direct threat is defined as a substantial risk of harm to the camper or others; direct threat may include having a highly contagious condition such as tuberculosis, hepatitis, an open or draining wound or rash, topical parasites, etc. or other conditions that may be spread through casual human contact.

I have read the above camp policy and understand that if my child were to exhibit any of the prohibited behaviors, they will be terminated from the Camp Fire Summer Program. I also understand that if my child is to be terminated that all fees are non-refundable.
